POLICY DOCUMENT FOR FINANCIAL SUPPORT TO TEACHERS

The University always strives to deliver quality education to the students. As a part of it, the university encourages its teachers to attend conferences, faculty development programs, and workshops organized by reputed national and international institutes

Means of Financial Support

- Registration fees for teachers to present papers at national or international conferences.
- Academic leave can be availed by faculty members to attend workshops, training, and refresher programs.

Procedure for Availing the Support

- In the case of conference and training workshops applications should be submitted to the vice chancellor through the dean and head of department at least 7 days in advance for approval of financial support or leave permission.
- For international events, the application must be submitted to the vice chancellor through the dean and head of department at least 30 days in advance, with an alternate teaching plan authorized by the corresponding Head of Department. The faculty member should also make sure that students' teaching hours are not affected.
